UUT FOR BUSINESS.

Champ Clark's View of the Missouri Situation.

Preparing for Lively Political Contests Everywhere.

CONGRESS IS ACTIVE

But It is in Preparing for Campaigns at Home.

WASHINGTON, May 39 .- [Special.]-Although the date of adjournment is still painfully uncertain and the issues of the campaign not completely made up, the political activity increases rapidly, and at least half the members of the house are devoting as much thought to their districts as to their duties here. At the headquar-ters of the respective congressional committees the work is active, the books are kept posted to date, and each secretary can tell every night just how many of his party have been nominated. So far but 10 Democrats and 14 Republicans have been entered in the race for the Fifty-fourth congress, but the conventions will be numerous in June, and, according to the managers of both parties, it is expected that the percentage of new men and old members so far maintained will continue. Out For Business

"In Missouri," says Champ Clark, "we are in it early, and we are in it for stuff.
Mr. Cobb of St. Louis, Mr. Burnes of St. Joe and Mr. Fyan of away down southwest have declined renomination, and that throws the decision in their districts a little late. I am renominated, as you know. John Heard of the Seventh has delegates enough to nominate him, and so has Marsh Arnold of the Fourteenth. We have known for some time that Morgan of the Fifteenth had enough to renominate him if they did not bolt, but they have been acting queerly. Of course Dockery, Hatch, Bland and Tarsney are down for renomination and re-election, but there is no news in that. John J. O'Neill says he will be renominated also, but some have doubted it." It appears, according to the statement of others, that Mr. Hall of the Second district had made a brilliant canvass and secured a large majority of the delegates when he went to the state convention and made a fight for a plank indorsing Mr. Cleveland, whereupon nearly one-half of his delegates indignantly flopped. After learning that he flew about like a suddenly beheaded hen, and what with getting appointments here which he had neglected and other well known processes slowly built up his fences again.

A Glance at Indiana. In the state of Indiana, so say all the Democratic members, there will be some desperately contested districts. In the First Mr. Taylor was renominated on the 24th inst., and at first view it would seem that the chances were against him a thousand or so to one, but he is popular with the labor element, and the Republicans have opened the fight against him with a party schism and a split in their conven-In the Second Mr. Bretz will be renominated, of course, but in the Third Jason Brown has to give place to ex-Conman Stockslaeger, who was commis sioner of the land office in Cleveland's first term. Mr. Holman will be renominated by acclamation, and his friends think he will come in with a whoop, but in the next district George William Cooper, who will be renominated on the 10th of June, will have a hard pull, for the leading manufacturers are against him, and the Populists in that district are, in the local dialect, "powerful uncertain." Mr. Bynum of the capital district will have an equally hard pull for the same reasons. Mr. Brookshire of the Eighth will be renominated July 25, and further this depo-nent saith not. The Populists had 2,323 votes in that district in 1802, and they are, as the local slang puts it, "both numerous and cantankerous." In the Ninth Dan Waugh, present Republican member, ac-cording to the rule of that district of two terms only, retires for some Republican yet to be named. In the Tenth Tom Hammond will be nominated, and as his plurality was only 49 a child can see what that means in a year like this. Mr. McNagny of the Tweifth will be renominated, and experts of both parties say his chances depend upon Fort Wayne and Allen county generally, which "has been acting mighty queer of late." Mr. Conn of the Thirteenth will also be renominated. It is in the Eleventh district that there will be fun, for Mr. Martin's plurality was only 758, and the Republicans have put up against him the veteran George W. Steele, who has such a splendid army record.

Matters In Other States. At Republican headquarters the records show the following additional nominations already made in Indiana: Charles J. Henry in the Seventh, Jesse Overstreet in the Fifth and A. M. Hardy in the Second. In Illinois there has been but one nomination, the present member, G. W. Smith, in the Twentieth district. In Kansas, according to reports, the local fighting is already as lively as it is elsowhere in the last month of the campaign. In the Third district Chester I. Long, a new man, has been nominated as against the Populist member, T. J. Hudson, and in the Fifth W. A. Calderhead against Populist John Davis. In the Fourth Mr. Curtis has been renominated, and his success is taken as a matter of course. In Pennsylvania Messrs. Dalzell, Stone and Phillips have been renominated and Matthew Griswold put up in the Twenty-sixth district against the present Democratic member, Mr. Sibley. In the First Tennessee W. C. Anderson has been nominated to succeed the present Mr. Taylor, and he will doubtless do so, as the Republican majority is about 5,000. In the Second there has been a great row, and whether a nomination has or has not been made depends upon the point of view. However, Mr. Houk's majority was over 11,000, and the Republicans there can afford to quarrel. Hard Work and No Risks. Besides the foregoing the Democrats have nominated Walter I. Hayes, present member, in the Second Iowa; Rolla K. Hart, an entirely new man, in the Ninth Kentucky; F. C. Layton, present mem-ber, in the Fourth Ohio, and Messrs. J. K. Weathersford and J. H. Raley in Oregon, both very new and very ambitious men, though it is not claimed that they will get much more out of it than the fun of running. The recent renomination of Henry C. Snodgrass in the Third Tennes see completes the Democratic list. It is conceded on each side that the other side is proceeding with great caution, taking no extra risks and renominating the present members wherever their record is good and their strength not lessened since 1892 The Democrats concede some losses in the south, and that they must capture 65 districts anyhow in the north to be sure of a working majority. They further concede that every district where their plurality in 1892 was less than 1,500 is to be labeled close and doubtful and looked after accordingly, but they are not yet ready to specify the district in the north on which they have bet to lose.

BEFORE JUNE ENDS.

The Tariff Bill will Probably go to the President.

Washington, May 29-The tariff leaders do not expect to have another long tariff debate in the house when the bill comes back from the senate. On the contrary the belief is that ten days will be ample to settle all differences between the house and senate.

The calculation is that the house will get through with the bill by June 15 or 18th so that the ten days allowed for reconciling differences will permit the bill to go to the president for his signature before June closes.

NEWS OF KANSAS.

Old Soldier at Leavenworth Mangled by the Train.

Santa Fe Brakeman Jack Raye Killed at McPherson.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

A Pretended Clothing Merchant at Emporia Skips.

LEAVENWORTH, May 29. - David Wales, a veteran from the soldiers' home, met with a horrible death here. His mangled remains were found scattered for a considerable distance along the track of the Kansas City, Wyandotte & Northwestern road near South Side park. He had been killed by a late train, probably the Maple Leaf passenger, as the Wyandotte has no train at that hour. Constable Lonergan has summoned a coroner's jury to hold an inquest. The home authorities were notified and the remains will probably be taken there for burial. The body was literally cut to pieces, pieces of arms, legs and head being picked up along the track for the distance of several yards.

HE WAS AN ARRANT FRAUD. A Man who was to Start a Store at Emporia

Leaves Suddenly. EMPORIA, May 29 .- A man representing himself to be H. Blumenthal, of Fremont, Neb., came to this city last week and announced through the papers he would start a men's furnishing goods store, to open June 1. He rented a building, hired carpenters, painters and other mechanics to prepare it and advertised freely in all the papers. On the strength of his business prospects he ran bills in many stores, borrowed money where he could, and had his name proposed for membership in the Commercial Club.

He deposited a check on the Continental Bank, of St. Louis, for $1200 in the Emporia Savings Bank, which was taken only for collection. The St. Louis bank wired that the check was no good. In-quiry of the Fremont bank brought answer by telegraph that "the man representing himself as H. Blumenthal is a fraud." Inquiries developed the fact that he had skipped out.

GOING TO JOIN THE ANGELS. An Atchison Man Who Thinks He Is

Divinely Appointed to Die. Archison, May 29. - Paul Gain, a Frenchman employed with the riprapping force above East Atchison, lieves he has been divinely sentenced to die on July 11, and is making every arrangement looking to that end. He has read the Bible a great deal and knows much of it by heart. He says he was informed as to the time he would be called away some years ago when his wife died. After she was buried he went into a trance, in which condition he remained two weeks. During that time he talked with angels, who told him the date on which he was to join them.

McPherson, Kan., May 29 .- J. Raye, a brakeman on the Santa Fe freight, has died today from the effects of a fall from a car while the train was in motion. The train was pulling into McPherson at noon from the west. Mr. Raye fell from the top of a box car to the ground by the track. He was injured about the head. He lived a little over an

No one saw him at the time of the accident. It is supposed that he slipped in attempting to climb from the box car to the flat car. Deceased was about forty years old, and leaves a wife and one child, who reside at Florence. The remains have been taken to Florence.

THE WANDERING POOR.

A Whole Family Turned Adrift Looking for Work.

Council Grove, May 29.—A poor old man named H. W. Walker, his aged wife and young son and daughter, passed through town yesterday going south. They were hunting work as they went. They were destitute and had neither food nor money, and were willing to work for "corn meal and bacon provided they could get it."

The man had lost his farm in Nebraska, because he could not lift the mortgage. Not being able to secure work among his neighbors he and his family started out across the country, fearing they might be sent to the poor house. A FLOATER IN THE RIVER,

Body of a Woman Apparently Strangled Found at Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, May 29 .- A woman

floater was discovered coming down the Missouri river, opposite this city. When the body was secured and taken ashore a coroner's inquest was held, and on examination a strong gingham string was found pulled around her neck, indicating that she had been choked to death.

The body was badly swollen, and seemed to have been in the water about ten days. There was nothing found by which her identity could be disclosed.

KILLED IN A BUNAWAY. A Young Farmer Near Assaria Has His Neck Broken

SALINA, May 29 .- J. O. Johnson, a well known young farmer of Assaria, was killed near there in a very sad manner. He was driving his team when they became frightened and started to run. In some manner the harness broke, allowing the wagon tongue to drop. Mr. Johnson was pulled out of the wagon and struck the ground with his head, breaking his neck and killing him instantly. The deceased was married only a week ago to Miss Berglund at Lindsborg.

Tried to Kill Herself. Fr. Scorr, May 29 .- "Jack" Raymond, a young woman about twenty years old, attempted suicide by taking a large amount of laudanum. She was found in a comatose state by one of the neighbora, and would have been beyond help in a short time. Some two months ago she took laudanum for the neuralgia, as she claimed, which nearly caused her death. Either jealousy or a morbid desire to beHighest of all in Leavening Power.-Latest U. S.
